Recruitment Opportunity

The Maine Criminal Justice Academy will be hosting a series of recruitment opportunities in months of February, March, April, May and June of 2024. There will be prospective employing agencies from around the state in attendance, which will be comprised of both law enforcement and corrections. <https://www.maine.gov/dps/mcja>

The Maine Criminal Justice Academy would like to extend this invitation to any veterans interested in a career in corrections or law enforcement in hopes of connecting them with a variety of representatives throughout the state to answer any questions and/or provide materials associated with the application/hiring process.

Attendees that are planning on attending should be in professional attire upon arrival. Recruiters may be interested in a resume or transcript if one is available.

If you have any veterans that may be interested and able to attend, please contact me at joshua.daley@maine.gov, as I will be working through the logistics for this event.

Additional information:

- Dates: May 22nd and June 26th
- Time: 1000-1200 hours in the Tac Center of the Academy (Each Day)
- Veterans may arrive at the front office any time between 0945-1100 hours.
- A training coordinator or staff member will be available to bring attendees to the appropriate location within the facility.

Best regards,

Josh Daley
