

Bay Road Public Land Information Sheet

Address:

Bay Road
Bowdoinham, Maine 04008

There is no easy way to spot this land due to the amount of vegetation along Bay Road. The best points of access may be Lucas Ln or Cedar Ln but be careful not to enter private property.

Hours: None – Always Open to The Public

Parking: Parking along Cedar Ln or Lucas Ln may be preferable to parking along Bay Rd, but it is possible, nonetheless. There is a portion of land that crosses the drainage lane along the side of the road and allows for a car to park.

Activities: Due to the rougher terrain, activities such as Birding, Hiking, or Snowshoeing are recommended to experienced hikers/hunters who may already be familiar with the terrain. Snowmobile tracks cross the land in the winter, so an explorer on foot may want to wear high vis clothing. For the casual adventurer, trails close to Bay Road are evident, but they disappear as you walk Southwest.

Good to Know:

- Rough terrain
- Unmarked trails deeper into the land
- Some ground holds precipitation turning the land into a marsh during the summer
- Many downed trees
- This land is cut in half by non-public powerline land. Be aware when crossing from one patch of land to the other

Open fires and camping are not permitted at this location.
